

Basic Course:

The system displays the settings page.
The player clicks the privacy switch bar.
The system checks if the privacy switch is active.
The system marks the player's scores as private and hides them in the leaderboards.
The system activates the switch.

Alternate Course (The scores were already private):

The system marks the player's scores as public and reveals them in the leaderboards.
The system deactivates the switch.

