Basic Course:
The system displays the settings page.
The player clicks the privacy switch bar.
The system checks if the privacy switch is active
The system marks the player's scores as private and hides them in the leaderboards.
The system activates the switch.

Alternate Course (The scores were already private):
The system marks the player's scores as public and reveals them in the leaderboards.
The system deactivates the switch.

Player

Player clicks the privacy switch bar

Display

Display with deactivated switch

The system marks the player's scores as public and reveals them in the leaderboards

Settings page

Is the privacy switch activated?

Yes

No

Score visibility settings

Display with activated switch

The system marks the player's scores as private and hides them in the leaderboards